THE WORLD

Mark 11:15-18

On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts.

Mark 11:15-18

And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written: "'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'" The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.

Why we get Angry

Anger is a presenting of emotion.
There is something behind it.

Why we get Angry

Why I got Angry

- Felt accused
- Later I got angry because I got angry and I want to be well thought of.

What behind your Anger?

- Belittles
- Controlled
- Woman – disconnect from the relationship
- Taken advantage of
- When big changes are forced upon you

Why do we get Angry?

Most of the time it is because our “god” has been threatened.

You can't treat ME this way!

The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.

Mark 11:18

Here is the Irony Jesus the true God was:

- bound
- struck
- spit on
- mocked

Mark 15:1-20

Luke 23:34

And Jesus said,
“Father, forgive them,
for they know not what they do.”

primary emotion.

Think about the person
who has made you mad.

Why Jesus got Angry

THE WEEK THAT CHANGED

Is He angry with the buying and selling?

And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, when the Lord your God blesses you, because the place is too far from you, ... then you shall turn it into money

Deuteronomy 14:24-26

and bind up the money in your hand and go to the place that the Lord your God chooses and spend the money for
...oxen or sheep or wine...

Deuteronomy 14:24-26

“...for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

Isaiah 56:7

Court of the Gentiles

Why Jesus got Angry

Three Stories

(Jesus) entered the synagogue, and a man was there with a withered hand. And they watched Jesus, to see whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man with the withered hand, "Come here."

Mark 3:1-6

And he said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

Mark 3:1-6

And they were bringing children to him that he might touch them, and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

Mark 10:13-14

On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts.

Mark 11:15-18

And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'"

The thing behind Jesus' anger is love.

1 Corinthians 10:33

just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.

EXTRA

Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting there. And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen.

John 2:13-17

The point is this - God loves us so much and He hates what comes between us.
He hates it so much that He used a whip
on it.

Jesus loves us so much and hates what comes in between us so much, that the whip He used, that demonstrated His anger in the temple, became the whip of the wrath of God that went to His back.

The wrath of God was poured out on Jesus for the sin that separates us from Him. Jesus in His body drove back the curse that keeps us from getting close to worship. He bore His own anger on the Cross for us.
